LAW YOU SHOULD KNOW

The purpose of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) is to provide protection to service members who have difficulty meeting their financial and legal obligations because of their military service

If you are called to active duty for at least 180 days, then you may terminate a motor vehicle lease duty without paying an early termination fee or other penalty. The motor vehicle lease must have been signed before being called to active duty.

This right is not automatic. You must give the person or company that leased you the vehicle written notice of the termination. You must also provide a copy of your military orders.

Also, you must return the vehicle to the person or company that leased you the vehicle within 15 days of the delivery of the notice.

ABOUT THIS SAMPLE LETTER

- This letter provides the required statement of notice to the person or company that leased you the vehicle so you can terminate a motor vehicle lease duty without paying an early termination fee or other penalty.
- Include a copy of your military orders.
- Include a copy of the Odometer Statement “Attachment A.”
- It is a good idea to send this letter by registered mail with a return receipt request.
- Read over this letter and make sure the information you have given is correct and complete.

Odometer Statement: If the odometer is in excess of its mechanical limits or the odometer reading is NOT the actual mileage then you must check either option 1 or option 2 under the first paragraph of the odometer statement. If it is the actual mileage, then do not check either paragraph. You must sign the Odometer Statement before sending it with your letter.

The letter in this packet is not based upon any specific state law or jurisdiction. The letter may need to be modified before use in any specific jurisdiction.
