LAW YOU SHOULD KNOW (50 U.S.C. § 3955)

The purpose of the Servicemembers Civil Relief Act (SCRA) is to provide protection to service members who have difficulty meeting their financial and legal obligations because of their military service. The SCRA allows a service member required to move due to military orders to end a lease early under certain circumstances.

The service member must:

- Provide written notice to the landlord (oral notice is not sufficient) and
- Provide a copy of the military orders.

The landlord must:

- Not demand any type of penalty for early termination;
- Refund the security deposit (minus any damages) within 30 days of the date the lease was terminated; and
- Refund the unused portion of any rent that was prepaid to the service member.

WHEN WILL THE LEASE END?

- Month-to-Month Rentals: effective 30 days after the next rent payment is due. (Example: if the rent is due on the first day of each month and notice is mailed on August 1, then the next rental payment is due and payable on September 1. Thirty (30) days after that date would be October 1, the effective date of termination)
- All Other Leases: effective on the last day of the next month after notice of termination was given. (Example: if the lease requires a yearly rental and proper notice of termination is given on July 20, the effective date of termination would be August 31).

DOES THIS APPLY TO ME?

The SCRA may allow early termination of a lease for activated reservist, new service members, current active duty deploying or PCS Orders. It may apply to other service members in other situations.

Activated Reservist: the lease was entered into by the reserve or guard member before he or she was recalled to active duty for 180 days or more;

New Service Members/Current Active Duty: The SCRA applies to both leases executed before beginning active duty and for leases executed after active duty begins if the service member is deployed for 90 days (or more) or if the service member receives PCS orders.

ABOUT THIS SAMPLE LETTER:

- This letter provides the required statement of notice to a service member's landlord explaining how his or her current military service of requires the early termination of the residential lease without penalty under the SCRA.
- This letter provides instructions for delivery of the security deposit or any unused prepaid rent.
